

NAIGC UAG Rules Policy

Last updated 2023-09-11

Changes highlighted in red

- I. Overview
  - A. Unified Artistic Gymnastics (UAG) is the structure governing competitions where a single competitor competes at least one event in both Men’s Artistic Gymnastics (MAG) and Women’s Artistic Gymnastics (WAG).
- II. General
  - A. Competition rules follow the rules outlined in the NAIGC MAG Rules Policy and NAIGC WAG Rules Policy.
  - B. Policies regarding gender and placement category eligibility are outlined in the NAIGC Competition Structures and Eligibility Policy.
  - C. Policies regarding Decathlon (competing all 10 events in a single competition) are outlined in section III.
- III. General Rules
  - A. Gymnasts can compete in any combination of events between disciplines but may only compete in a single level for each discipline.
  - B. Decathlon
    - 1. Decathlon competitions consist of gymnasts competing in all 10 artistic events in a single competition (could be across multiple sessions).
    - 2. Decathlon score is calculated as 5*WAG AA + MAG AA.
    - 3. Levels
      - a) A Decathlon level consists of a combination of a single MAG level and a single WAG level.
      - b) Decathlon levels recognized at a given meet are determined by the meet host based on registration.
        - (1) For NAIGC Nationals, all level combinations will be offered.
      - c) NAIGC recommends offering 3 awards for any level combination with 6 or more competitors and 1 award for all other combinations competed.
- XIII. Amendments
  - A. This document may be amended by the NAIGC UAG Rules Spokesperson, or by the NAIGC Board of Directors.
  - B. The most up-to-date and authoritative version of this document is on the NAIGC website.
